In the first two tabs, I have two lists of news and in the third one I have a search box. Now I want to make the first two tabs have different styles. I tried: `#tab1.tabs li.tabs-selected a.header{ background:#0277bd!important; } #tab1.tabs li.tabs-selected a.active{ background:#0277bd!important; }` and the same for the second style. The background colours are the same for the two tabs. I want them to be different. Can someone tell me why? A: You need to add .active classes for the first two tabs to apply the styles for the first two tabs. Additionally, you need to add a .header class to the first tab instead. `#tab1.tabs li.tabs-selected a.header:first-of-type { background: #0277bd!important; } #tab1.tabs li.tabs-selected a.active:first-of-type { background: #0277bd!important; }`

Microsoft Office 2010 Microsoft Office 2015 Microsoft Office 2016 Microsoft Office 2017 Microsoft Office 2019 Dotnet Frame Work 2018 I know one way to install Open Office. Buy Licenze for Microsoft Office 2010. That is cheap and hard to search. Is there any other way to install Open Office on Windows 8.1. I just download the file from the link that have the Open Office.org. I hope there are other way to install Open Office on Windows 8.1. Maybe someone can help me with the file name or the file from the download. Thanks before. A: What version of Windows? This answer uses 3 different methods to activate the Open Office for Microsoft Office 2010: Software Product Key Trial Generic Activation Code In this answer I share one method and the most popular one. Software Product Key is official and trusted by Microsoft and official method. With this key you can get a trial version (which is a limited version without extension, etc) or a complete version. If you have the opportunity to buy a computer running Windows 10 (2016+) you can easily activate your software. Trial version is another way to get Open Office without pay. You just need a key from the official sites (like microsoft.com) and you can use for 90 days. Generic Activation Code (GAC) is an unofficial method, but you can find code for Open Office. When you get this code, you can do anything. You can use it to use, you can redistribute, etc. But in this option you will lose your ownership. You can search for the windows product key generator, but you should be careful with it, they just provide you a random key that you can not use in any version of Microsoft Operating Systems. In your Windows 8.1 you can try this: Find the application "Open Office.org" on your Computer and select "Start Windows" and press the key Windows Key + Q. It will start the password screen for the program. In the fields write "Microsoft Office 2010" (e.g. Microsoft Office 2010) When you have entered this you can click on "Ok" and in your Microsoft
